PATRIOTIC MASS MEETING TO BE HELD BY THE PEOPLE OF OGDEN ON TUESDAY EVENING

Proof of the fact that the people of Utah and of Ogden especially are roused by the dangers which confront the national government and that they are determined to do their share of patriotic work in the defense of the flag and the maintenance of American rights, was evinced today in plans advanced by public spirited citizens for a great patriotic mass meeting to be held in the Ogden Tabernacle next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. The Tabernacle was preferred to the city hall square, because the weather may be stormy and because the audience may best be handled and the speakers best heard in the Tabernacle.

Great Orators to Speak.
Special invitations to address the mass meeting will be extended to many noted orators and prominent men, including the following:

BRIGHAM R. ROBERTS of Salt Lake, the silver-tongued orator of Salt Lake.

CHARLES R. MABEY of Bountiful, one of the greatest orators in the state, especially on the subject of preparedness.

APOSTLE DAVID O. MCKAY, eloquent logician and masterful pleader for patriotic service.

JUDGE JOHN D. MURPHY, gallant Spanish war veteran and a superb orator on such occasions.

CAPTAIN EDMUND T. HULANISKI, to whom the smell of powder was a daily diet, together with minie-balls and grape-shot in the '60's.

M. M. CLOTHIER, another grand old veteran of the G. A. R., whose military record proved that he qualified by heroic service in the '60's as a soldier of the type of D'Artagnan, or one of the illustrious Musketeers.

DISTRICT JUDGE ALFRED W. AGEE, whose oratorical conception of the Stars and Stripes is an epitome of the national heart.

JUDGE CHARLES C. RICHARDS, orator and statesman, imbued with the spirit of his heroic family, forefathers, who fought with Washington in the Indian wars, in the Revolution, the war of 1812 and the Confederate navy.

SENATOR JOSEPH C. CHEZ, whose reputation as a law-maker will probably be eclipsed, if war comes, by his valorous services in national defense.

THE REV. JOHN EDWARD CARVER, who is popularly nominated by common consent, as an ideal chaplain for Utah's first regiment.

FRED G. TAYLOR, who resembles Henry Clay not only in personality, but in eloquence of speech on patriotic occasions.

THE REV. FRANK G. BRAINERD, always a militant patriot.

REV. CHRISTIAN A. GARVER, one of Ogden's best known orators and a thorough patriot.

Mr. Mabey Accepts.
Charles R. Mabey of Bountiful, received his invitation by telephone today. He said Tuesday was the time for an important business engagement but he would arrange to attend the Ogden mass meeting. He will deliver one of the principal speeches. He is famed as having Bryan's eloquence and Cochran's logic and an occasion of this kind will call forth his maximum powers.

Famous Choir to Sing.
Arrangements were planned today to have the famous Tabernacle choir, under direction of Prof. Joseph Ballantyne, every member of which is an ardent patriot, lend the dramatic power of their presence and the thrilling inspiration of their music in patriotic songs.

While the mass meeting is not planned by the officers and members of Troops B and K, they have given delighted assurances of their co-operation and they will probably march in a body from the Armory to the Tabernacle.

Great Treat Promised.
Those in charge of preliminary arrangements have urged that all Tuesday night social affairs and business engagements, except those of the most pressing character, be deferred, leaving Tuesday night free from all counter attractions.

The fame of the Tabernacle choir is already known to the people of Ogden will realize fully probably for the first time the incomparable power of this musical organization when it renders at this mass meeting the inspiring "Battle Hymn of the Republic," "The Star Spangled Banner" and "Maryland, My Maryland," and it has been suggested that the great orators afford instrumental entertainment in rendering during intermissions the yelp-compelling tunes of "Dixie" and "Rally Round the Flag."

warrants issued on indictments, with the exception of one, making a serious charge against a well known man who is not yet in custody. Sheriff Peterson is after him and will probably have him within 24 hours.

The arrest of the police officers created a flurry of excitement downtown, but caused no surprise at the court house, nor among observant persons who have followed closely the work of the grand jury.

Jury's Enormous Task.
The magnitude of the grand jury's work of investigation was indicated today in the compilation of the names of witnesses, their fees, etc. There were eighty-two of these witnesses, summoned by the jury, and besides, a large amount of quiet investigation was conducted by the grand jury both as a body and as individuals, or by committees of the grand jury, operating secretly on their own judgment.

Warm praise of the work of the grand jury and of the services performed by District Attorney Stuart P. Dobbs were heard today on all sides, without reference to the guilt or innocence of the persons indicted.

INDICTMENTS.
O. H. Mohlman is accused by the Grand Jury of the County of Weber, State of Utah, by this indictment, of the crime of Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

Said O. H. Mohlman, at Ogden City, Weber County, State of Utah, on the 22nd day of June, A. D. 1915, the said O. H. Mohlman then and there being a police officer, to-wit a sergeant in the police force of Ogden City, Weber County, State of Utah, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, and then and there having reasonable cause to believe that one _____, whose other and true name is to the grand jury unknown, was at said time and date, in Ogden City, aforesaid, then and there carrying on and conducting a certain game played with a device in the nature of a wheel for money and other representatives of value, in violation of and contrary to the provisions of Chapter Thirty-three, Penal Code, Compiled Laws of Utah for 1907, as amended by Chapter 134, Session Laws of Utah for 1911, he, the said O. H. Mohlman, did then and there, willfully and unlawfully, refuse and neglect to inform against the said _____, whose other and true name is to the grand jury unknown.

Contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the State of Utah.

J. H. Kellier is accused by the Grand Jury of the County of Weber, State of Utah, by this indictment, of the crime of a misdemeanor, to-wit, false imprisonment, committed as follows:

Said J. H. Kellier, on or about the 30th day of August, A. D. 1916, at Ogden City, Weber County, State of Utah, said J. H. Kellier then and there being a public officer, to-wit a sergeant in the police department of Ogden City, Weber County, State of Utah, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, did then and there, unlawfully and willfully, and falsely, make an assault upon _____, and said _____, did violently seize, and without any authority or lawful excuse, did then and there willfully and unlawfully detain and restrain of his liberty, and falsely imprison for the space of one hour, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the State of Utah.

On this, the 23rd day of March, A. D. 1917, T. E. Browning is accused by the Grand Jury of the County of Weber, State of Utah, by this indictment, of the crime of a misdemeanor, to-wit, refusing to receive a criminal committed as follows:

Said T. E. Browning, at Ogden City, Weber County, State of Utah, on the 29th day of August, A. D. 1916, said T. E. Browning being then and there a peace officer, to-wit, chief of police of Ogden City, Weber County, State of Utah, duly appointed, qualified and acting as such, and being then and there, by virtue of such office, keeper of a jail, to-wit, the City Jail of Ogden City aforesaid, he, the said T. E. Browning, then and there, willfully and unlawfully, did refuse to receive and place in confinement in the said City Jail of Ogden City aforesaid, one _____ and one _____, whose other and true names are to the grand jury unknown, the said _____ and _____, whose other and true names are to the grand jury unknown, then and there being charged by one H. C. Peterson, a duly appointed, qualified and acting peace officer, to-wit a police officer of Ogden City aforesaid, with having committed the public offense of gambling, a criminal offense, said public offense having been committed by the said _____ and the said _____ in Ogden City, Weber County, State of Utah, on said day last above mentioned, in the presence of said H. C. Peterson, and arrest of the said _____ and _____ having thereupon been duly and lawfully made by said H. C. Peterson, contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the State of Utah.

The 23rd day of March, A. D. 1917, D. A. Smyth and _____, whose other and true names are to the grand jury unknown, are accused by the grand jury of the County of Weber, State of Utah, by this indictment, of the crime of conspiracy, a misdemeanor, committed as follows:

That the said D. A. Smyth and the said _____, whose other and true names are to the grand jury unknown, on or about the 1st day of January, 1915, at Ogden City, Weber County, State of Utah, willfully, unlawfully and maliciously did then and there conspire, combine and confederate together to commit a crime, to-wit: Illegal selling of liquor, in the manner following:

The said D. A. Smyth, then and there being the proprietor of a certain building in Ogden City, Weber County, State of Utah, known as the National Hotel, in which said building he did then and there conduct and operate a hotel, did agree that he would lease to the said _____ and _____, whose other and true names are to the grand jury unknown, a certain storeroom situated in the cellar underneath the said hotel and would permit, aid and assist the said _____ and _____, whose other and true names are to the grand jury unknown, to use said storeroom in said cellar and to carry on in the said cellar the business of selling intoxicating liquors without having first procured a license so to do. That for the purpose of carrying out said agreement and conspiracy said D. A. Smyth and the said _____ and _____, whose other and true names are to the grand jury unknown, did cause the door whereby entrance was had into said storeroom and said cellar from the lobby of said hotel so owned and conducted by said D. A. Smyth to be fitted with a lock so connected with an electric current that the clerk in the said hotel might, by pressing a button situated at the desk of the clerk in the lobby of the said hotel, unlock the said door and permit such person or persons as said clerk should think fitting to gain entrance to the said cellar and storeroom wherein the said business of carrying on the sale of liquor without a license so to do was to be and was carried on by the said _____ and _____, whose other and true names are to the grand jury unknown, and that on or about the 25th day of December, 1916, one _____ did gain entrance to the said cellar and storeroom by means of the said door so operated by said clerk by means of said electric current and did purchase in the said storeroom from the said defendants, _____ and _____, whose other and true names are to the grand jury unknown, certain intoxicating liquor, to-wit: beer.

Contrary to the form of the statute in such case made and provided and against the peace and dignity of the State of Utah.

THE GREAT
NAZIMOVA COMING

The most costly film production in the world is coming for a four days' engagement at the Alhambra starting next Sunday.

Nazimova, conceded to be the greatest actress the world has ever known, will play the lead. The masterpiece is without parallel, the most gripping, appealing, sensational film ever produced. As one of the famous stage stars expressed herself after viewing "War Brides," "I have seen it all ready to be seen in this world—I am ready to die." The story is a vital—present day horrors being depicted so real it makes you shudder, weep and yearn for the relief of the unfortunate. Every inhabitant of this territory should witness it. There is nothing too expensive for the Alhambra. See "War Brides" if you have to miss a meal to do so. Next Sunday—Advertisement.
